5. I am a second career pastor with the background of a 30-year career in business. I have now experienced a wonderful eight years of pastoral ministry. I have a heart and deep empathy for young, new pastors just starting out in ministry and the many challenges they face. Coaching, with an emphasis, on new pastors, is one of the ways I hope to be able to support those just getting started. I love to build relationships and get to know new people.
6. ELCA Level 1 Coach; with an interest in support new pastors
7. I just completed my coaching training August of 2018 and have not had any coaching engagements yet. But let's give it a try!
