

A level I certified coach, Constanze has served in ordained ministry for almost two decades in a variety of settings such as shared multiple points, solo pastorate, and staff settings. She is passionate about walking along side of people of all ages and from all walks of life. She loves to listen, ask, and share in their story as they partner with God on their journey through life. Constanze can be reached at pastorconstanze@tlcmadison.com or at (605)256-2771.
